

Kenneth Moll, '88

'88 Class Correspondent:
Dawn Bode

Greetings classmates. Many thanks to those of you who responded to my letter. I encourage everyone to participate; let us know what you're up to.

I continue to work for the City of Chicago, Department of Law, where I now handle matters involving environmental law and consumer fraud. Best wishes to everyone.

Kenneth Moll practices law as a senior associate at McDowell and Colantoni,

Ltd., where he recently obtained a jury verdict of more than $300,000 in a case of first impression under the Dram Shop Act. In conjunction with his election as chairman of the Breast Implant Litigation Group, he has appeared on the MacNeil/Lehrer Newshour and the Aaron Freeman Show. Ken also has authored several Dram Shop liability articles which were published in the Chicago Tribune and the Chicago Daily Law Bulletin.
